

Casey is a mental health professional with over 10 years experience facilitating healing and growth. Casey provides a warm and empowering space to help people connect deeply with themselves and create more of what they are wanting in their lives. She supports others to get to the core of what may be blocking them from living a life full of depth and vitality in devotional service. She is passionate about the process of personal and spiritual transformation.

She usually does a free consultation with new clients and there she will discuss the fees.

WhatsApp, Call or text 786-306-2727

Website: www.balancedhealing.org